

Small Unmanned Aircraft Systems for Public Safety Officials

Students will learn the methods in which to prepare, create, manage, and document a Small Unmanned Aircraft System program for both police (patrol functions and SWAT operations) and fire applications.

Students will also acquire knowledge on funding, equipment choices, rules and regulations, navigating the Federal Aviation Administration, and proper documentation.

Your Course Is Now
Ready
Register
HERE

Course Topics Include:

- Methods to fund an SUAS program
- Roles and Equipment decisions
- Rules and regulations
- Remote Pilot In Control (RPIC) concerns
- Navigating and working with the FAA
- Software Applications, Tips & Tricks

GENERAL INFORMATION

October 7-8, 2019

Time: 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Fees: $138.00

Registration: (727) 341-4611

Facilitator: Paul Roach

Agency/ Self Registration

<http://workforce.spcollege.edu>

Registration & Hotel information

Training Calendar <http://pstc.spcollege.edu>

Cancellations must be received 16 calendar days before start of class to avoid charge.

Casual clothing is recommended. Shorts, tank tops and/or offensive T-shirts are unacceptable attire. LE personnel not in uniform that are carrying exposed firearms must prominently display agency ID badge at all times while on college property.

Lead Instructor

John Deluca has fourteen years of overall police experience, specifically relating to street level narcotics, violent crimes, undercover surveillance, and SWAT operations. Twelve years assigned to the SPPD SWAT team as a team leader and in charge of surveillance electronics, robotics, and sUAS platforms.