Advanced Undercover Surveillance Techniques

This three-day course is designed for law enforcement officers assigned to a unit where conducting surveillance is part of their duties. Properly planned and executed surveillance missions greatly increase the probability of successful and important evidence gathering and follow-up on missions conducted against the targeted individual(s). During this program students will participate in practical Evening/Night Time exercises utilizing different surveillance methods incorporating foot surveillance, as well as mobile vehicle surveillance

Who should attend: Law enforcement officers assigned to specialize and, or investigative units including violent crime task force.
