

CMS Vehicle Operations Instructor CJSTC #800

This 40-hour program will provide the attendee with the tools to provide both recruits and active law enforcement personnel with a strong foundation to continue to develop and improve their driving skills while maintaining safe driving habits. As a driver-training instructor, your objective is to teach both basic recruits and veteran officers/deputies of their responsibilities for the safe and efficient operation of motor vehicles in both stressful conditions and routine patrol. Vehicles provided. Note: two evening driving classes.

Students are required to pass a written test with at least a score of 85%, and successfully demonstrate ALL required skills. There is a mandatory 100% attendance policy.

Eligibility Required

- Have a general FDLE Instructor certification or be eligible for and apply for the general instructor certification at the same time as the High-Liability Instructor certification
