

Your Course Is Now
Ready
Register
HERE

Interventions & Response for SROs #1404

The Single Response to Active Threat portion prepares the SRO to respond immediately to an active shooter incident. Officers will learn the mental and technical aspects of single officer response to active assailant.

This advanced course combines Crisis Intervention Training for SRO's #1401 and Single Officer Response to Active Threat and Shooter Incidents #1402. The Crisis Intervention portion is a specialized course that mirrors the nationally recognized Memphis Model. It prepares the SRO to respond immediately to a student in crisis. Officers will learn about common mental health and behavioral issues, de-escalation techniques, involuntary commitment, and supporting students as they re-enter school after treatment.

Equipment List:

- Long sleeve T-shirt, BDU pants, tactical boots
- Agency Duty belt with 2 extra magazines
- Ballistic Vest, Clear eye and ear protection

Course Topics Include:

- Defining the single officer response
- Movement and tactics
- Realistic scenario based training
- Mental Health Issues
- Crisis Intervention
- Community Resources
- Legal Issues
- Active shooter incidents

GENERAL INFORMATION

July 24-28, 2023

Time: 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Fees: TRUST FUNDED

Registration: (727) 341-4492

Facilitator: Paul Althoff

Agency/Self-Registration

<https://spcollege.augusoft.net>

Registration & Hotel information

SEPSI Authorization form Required

Priority for registration into this class is given to agencies within Pinellas County.*

Remaining seats will be open to all agencies 14 days from the start date.

Casual clothing is recommended. Shorts, tank tops and/or offensive T-shirts are unacceptable attire. Law enforcement personnel not in uniform that are carrying exposed firearms must prominently display agency ID and/or badge at all times while on college property.

Training Calendar <http://pstc.spcollege.edu/>

Lead Instructors

The Single Response to active Threat portion is taught by RAD Training Inc. The trainers are certified and all have an extensive background in active assailant response, tactics, operation in command, trauma care and medical positions.

The Crisis Intervention portion will be led by Officer Greg Graff of the Pinellas County Schools Police Department. Officer Graff has over 35 years of law enforcement experience and currently leads the agency's Crisis Intervention Team.