

Your Course Is Now
Ready
Register
HERE

Kratom: What Law Enforcement Officers Need to Know

This seminar will educate law enforcement officers about the nature of kratom use and abuse. The seminar will raise awareness of the issue of a systematic and nation-wide phenomenon. It will address the consequences of kratom abuse to individuals and the community. Attention is directed to the investigative, evidentiary, and legal concerns of kratom for law enforcement officers.

Course Topics Include:

- In-depth analysis of kratom
- Terms and jargon in kratom use and abuse
- The problem of legal and illegal use
- Profiles of abuse and addiction
- Motivations and rationalizations of abuse
- Case studies

GENERAL INFORMATION

August 5, 2020

Time: 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Fees: Trust Funded

Registration: (727) 341-4492

Facilitator: Lauren Bley

Agency/Self-Registration

<http://workforce.spcollege.edu>

Registration & Hotel information

SEPSI Authorization form Required

Cancellations must be received 14 calendar days before start of class to avoid charge.*

Casual clothing is recommended. Shorts, tank tops and/or offensive T-shirts are unacceptable attire. Law enforcement personnel not in uniform that are carrying exposed firearms must prominently display agency ID and/or badge at all times while on college property.

Training Calendar <http://pstc.spcollege.edu/>

Lead Instructor

Stan Crowder is a retired U.S. Army Military Police Colonel. During his military career, Stan served in numerous positions including: MP Commander, Chief of Investigations for the Inspector General of Georgia, Counterdrug Commander, Battalion Commander, and Chief of Personnel. He served seven years as a civilian police officer; 5 years with Cobb County (GA) PD and 2-years with Marietta (GA) PD. He teaches at Kennesaw State University, Kennesaw, Georgia, USA, where he has been teaching since 1999 and was selected as the 2007 recipient of the Betty Siegel teaching award. Stan has a Ph.D., MBA, and BS. He is the Asst President of the International Association of Forensic Criminologists and the past president of the Cobb County Law Enforcement Association.