

Your Course Is Now
Ready
Register
HERE

Middle Management CJSTC #107

In this course, students will examine the concept of management and the responsibilities and role of middle managers, including planning, organizing, directing, implementing and evaluating. Students will also understand the relationship between executive management, the middle manager, and the line supervisor.

This course is Salary Incentive through CJSTC. There is an attendance policy and those attending will be required to pass a written exam with a minimum of 80%.

Course Topics Include:

- Introduction to Middle Management
- Development Skills for Middle Managers
- Legal and Ethical Issues
- Functional Aspects of Leadership
- Fiscal and Personnel Management

Please note that the instructor is asking that you bring the following agency specific information to class:
Students are required to bring some items in on the first day of class to include an organizational chart, agency/unit budget, job descriptions for first line supervisors and middle managers, as well as their policy on ethics

Cancellations must be received 14 calendar days before start of class to avoid charge.

Casual clothing is recommended. Shorts, tank tops and/or offensive T-shirts are unacceptable attire. Law enforcement personnel not in uniform that are carrying exposed firearms must prominently display agency ID and/or badge at all times while on college property.

Training Calendar <http://pstc.spcollege.edu/>

Lead Instructor

Captain Nick Lazaris has been a member of the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office (PCSO) for over 20 years and is the owner of NLAZ Enterprises LLC. During his time at PCSO, he has served in multiple assignments throughout the agency. The majority of Captain Lazaris' time with PCSO has been within the Special Operations Division. Captain Lazaris currently serves as the commander of the Central District Station. With nearly 250 employees, both sworn and civilian (non-sworn), including line supervisors and middle managers, Captain Lazaris is responsible for the annual budget, overall direction, and effective management of this District. Captain Lazaris has been teaching advanced courses in law enforcement for over 16 years. Captain Lazaris received his Bachelor Degree from St. Petersburg College and is currently completing his Masters in Business Administration with Louisiana State University.